COMMENTS

Our "An Enchanted Evening" Fundraiser was a huge success! Parents and Staff enjoyed a very social evening and raised over $30,000 at the evening's event. The Golden Ticket winner was thrilled with his new Deluxe Yeti Package and the crowd was generously bidding on the last chocolate cake of the night, which went for $285! All of our Silent Auction and Live Auction items were very generously bid on, in many cases bringing in more than the value of the items. ☺ We have already placed our orders for the 25 new chrome books, the Band equipment, and the STEM Club materials and look forward to their immediate use!

The first Lottery for the new school year was conducted and we've contacted the 50 new Kindergarten families about their selection in the Lottery. They were all super excited to get the news! (Please note that the Lottery numbers on the previous page reflect the number remaining in the Lottery AFTER that first Lottery pull.)

Spring Break has been a busy one for our maintenance team. We were able to replace five awnings that no longer deflected the rain, built a new retaining wall around one of our patio areas, and coordinated much-needed repair and renovation work to the portable restrooms on the lower campus. In addition, we painted a lot of our white picket fencing, giving the campus a fresh look for Spring.
