COMMENTS:

At CMP-Carmichael, we recently released a new student enrichment offering, available on our Distance Learning website. The Outdoor Learning Program website (a spin-off of our Earth Explorers Program) provides lessons and activities for students as well as tips and recommendations for families about places to go outdoors and ways to get some vital nature time in for students and families. Resources for teachers will also be provided. The outdoor lessons and resources are being made available to all grade levels at CMP-Carmichael, and will soon be available on all CMP Distance Learning websites. A big thank you to Nate Manley, our Outdoor Learning Educator, for creating and facilitating this resource for our students, families, and teachers! You can visit the website here: <https://sites.google.com/cacmp.net/cmp-outdoor-education/home>

In October, we are looking forward to our annual Read-A-Thon, running October 16 – 30. This yearly event promotes the joys of reading and supports the development of library collection and adding titles to our e-library. Activities for this year's Read-A-Thon include book reviews, book jacket designing, a spirit day (dress as favorite literary genre/theme) and culminates with Literary Character Parade on October 30th!
