COMMENTS

The teachers enjoyed a much deserved break for two weeks. All staff returned with a renewed energy and excitement. Our campus continues to prepare for the hybrid in person learning by organizing their classrooms and creating the daily schedules. We continue to host fundraisers to support the teachers with materials and others items needed for the new socially distanced classroom design. We have received countless donations from parents and extended family for our "Giving Tuesday" online fundraiser. We announced the names of the Distance Learning teachers to the community on November 20. All teachers will be hosting a "Meet and Greet" to introduce themselves to new families and give details on the hybrid or Distance Learning model. These meetings will be scheduled once we have a date for our opening to in person learning. The CMP Orangevale safety committee, comprised of a teacher, Dean of Students, Admin Assistant, TA and San Juan USD Safe Schools representative, met on December 16, 2020 to conduct a risk assessment and review the practices in place for our opening for in person learning. The safety of our students and staff is our highest priority.
