Campus Happenings:

Montessori educators love January after winter break, because the children return and are so ready to get down to work. It happens every year, and yet I still find it delightful to observe. It was also a pleasure reading over the report cards and seeing the progress students have made the first semester

The tours are bring held weekly, and to date we have had between 30 to 40 parents attend. Most families have heard about us from friends or family, with the next highest being from our website. Our banners are up on the field and on Engle at the main entrance. Parent magazine will also be running an ad for our schools.

Families continue to enjoy the Campus Dinners which we started this year as an option to Pancake Breakfasts. Parents told us through a survey last year that they wanted to come to breakfasts, but their work schedules did not allow it and having dinners was a suggestion. Classrooms now have the option of doing a dinner instead of a breakfast, and they occur in conjunction with another on-site event, such as a Book Fair.

Our Watch-Me-Work Night was well attended. It is a sweet sight watching children proudly show their parents their favorite jobs in the classroom!
