Adolescents need opportunities to work and live in a trusting community that fosters deep connections with others.

Adolescents need a curriculum that demonstrates the interdisciplinary nature of the world and prepares them to understand and solve current and future challenges.

Adolescents need activities that foster self-construction for exploring oneself and discovering their place in the world.
Middle School Community Roles

- Honor the CRM handbook and guidelines
- Know your resources
- Check your student's grades regularly

- Communicate regularly with the teachers
- Establish routines
- Provide opportunities for real-life activities
- Help your student with time management
- Encourage adequate sleep and proper nutrition
- Support the role of the family

- Evaluate progress and mastery of learning
- Model continuous learning
- Sources
- Provide and direct students toward re-teaching and guided learning
- Role of the teacher

- Use your resources
- Work independently and collaboratively
- Maintain a positive attitude
- Live a healthy lifestyle

- Attain information
- Commit to learning/teaching
- Learn to manage your own behavior
- Contribute to a community member

- Role of the student
- The success of our Montessori middle school
- My dear people... I see the light in your world.

3 Period Lessons
- Responsible for your own education
- Manage your own time
- Multi-age classrooms

Family

Others Say the Same

Some Things Change

- For belonging
- For physical activity
- Need for silliness
- Need to be needed
- Need for routine
- Need for order
- Need for readiness
- Want to learn things they consider to be use
- Develop and using critical thinking
- Peer academic learning experiences with peers
- Reflective learning experiences

The Montessori Difference

Immersion tips
- Weekly quizzes and final exams
- Study guides
- Letter grades and online gradebook
- Role of the teacher
- Cycles of learning

NEW:

3 Period Lessons
- Responsible for your own education
- Manage your own time
- Multi-age classrooms

Family

The Adolescent

Montessori Middle School Program

The Montessori Middle School Program is a bridge to our middle school program. Lower and upper elementary Montessori

The Montessori System Higher and Middle School Program